Welcome to Holy Trinity Parish

Today is the Sunday of the last Judgement. The Epistle is from 1 Corinthians 8:8-9:2. The Gospel is from Matthew 25:31-46. Polycarp of Smyrna.

Holy Trinity is a diverse and welcoming parish of the Carpatho Russian Diocese, under the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

His Eminence, Metropolitan Gregory of Nyssa, is our diocesan ruling hierarch.

Divine Liturgy is offered Sunday at 10 am. As reminder only those Orthodox Christians who are properly prepared are invited to receive Holy Communion.

Everyone is invited downstairs following Divine Liturgy for Coffee Hour and Fellowship.

Come down and meet Fr. Luke and the parishioners.

Our parish offers many opportunities to pray, to study and learn more about Jesus Christ and His Holy Orthodox Church.

If you have any questions about the Orthodox Church, our Faith, or our parish please feel free to contact Fr. Luke. He is more than happy to meet with you and talk.

Luke and other members of the parish. We'd like to hear from you about what else you'd like to see at the café in the way of activities, games, new things to learn about or any other ideas. We also want to know what day and time would work best for you. Look for a suggestion box in the hall or share your ideas with Lauren Mihaylo, Susan Sulich or Fr. Luke.

Help Re-Stock Our Kitchen—We are in need of decaf coffee and bottled water. Thank you!

Dorothy Day

Dorothy Day Update— Thank you to all the people who showed up to help serve at Dorothy Day this past Friday. It was great to have so many parishioners show interest and learn the process of preparing and serving. The indoor dining went well, and we kept ahead of the crowds all day serving over 140 hot meals and bag lunches. Our next date to serve will be Friday, April 11th from 1:30-4:45 p.m. If you wish to serve on that date, please let Susan Sulich know.

Church school students will be first to venerate the cross so they can head downstairs right after Liturgy. Feb. 23rd, March 9th, March 23rd and April 6th

Envelopes are In

Envelopes are in—If you use envelopes to make your weekly donations you can pick them up in the church hall. Annual Parish Lenten Retreat--
Saturday, March 29—Plan to attend our in-house Lenten retreat to be led by Rev. Dr. Alexander Goussetis, Director, Center for Family Care of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America. The topic is “Repentance in the Contemporary World.” The first segment of the talk whets our appetite by offering a survey on the amazing communication skills displayed by Jesus during his earthly ministry. The main thrust of the Lenten retreat is navigating through the greatest short story in history – the Parable of the Prodigal Son, with the emphasis on repentance and application for us today. The retreat will start at 2 p.m., followed by Vespers and a Potluck Lenten meal. The retreat is open to all. Feel free to invite friends and members of other parishes.

As we begin Lent together, the following minimal fasting regulations are designated for our clergy and faithful:

- 1) Monday, March 3 (Clean Monday), the first day of the Fast, is a day of strict abstinence; likewise Great and Holy Friday, and Great and Holy Saturday, namely April 17 and 18 are days of strict abstinence. On these days, no meat or dairy products may be eaten.
- 2) All Wednesdays and Fridays during this entire Season are days of abstinence from meat.
- 3) Meat and meat products may not be eaten during all Holy Week, namely April 14 through April 19
- 4) For the evening Pre-sanctified Liturgy, a minimum three-hours fast from all food and drink must be observed before the reception of Holy Communion. Normal fasting from midnight is still practiced before the Liturgies of St. John Chrysostom and St. Basil the Great.

These are the minimal requirements to observe during this Season. But for those of stronger body and more willing spirit, I wholeheartedly recommend the penitential practices of a sterner quality which the time-honored traditions and customs of our Holy Orthodox Church have handed down to us.

On weekdays (Monday to Friday inclusive) during the seven weeks of Lent, there are restrictions both on the number of meals taken daily and on the types of food permitted; but when a meal is allowed, there is no fixed limitation on the quantity of food to be eaten.

[This material is taken from the introduction to The Lenten Triodion. In modern practice, the above rules tend to be somewhat relaxed, and they have always been relaxed for children and the infirm. Fast as you are able and consult Fr. Luke as needed. As you eat less physical food, it is important to increase your intake of spiritual food – prayer and reading scripture and the fathers of the Church.]
