Welcome to Holy Trinity Parish

Today is the Sunday of St. John Climacus. The Epistle is from Hebrews 6:13-20. The Gospel is from Mark 9:17-31.

Holy Trinity is a diverse and welcoming parish of the Carpatho Russian Diocese, under the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

His Eminence, Metropolitan Gregory of Nyssa, is our diocesan ruling hierarch.

Divine Liturgy is offered Sunday at 10 am. As reminder only those Orthodox Christians who are properly prepared are invited to receive Holy Communion.

Everyone is invited downstairs following Divine Liturgy for Coffee Hour and Fellowship.

Come down and meet Fr. Luke and the parishioners.

Our parish offers many opportunities to pray, to study and learn more about Jesus Christ and His Holy Orthodox Church.

If you have any questions about the Orthodox Church, our Faith, or our parish please feel free to contact Fr. Luke. He is more than happy to meet with you and talk.

Easter Bake and Craft Sale—Our Easter sale is coming up fast. It will take place on Saturday, April 5th from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Thank you to everyone who has been busy making perogies, stuffed cabbage, rolls and Pascha breads. Stay tuned for Russian Tea Cookie and Kielbasa making dates. We will also need people to help with set up on Friday April 4th and to staff the sale on Saturday. Please plan to give some time to this chance to interact with the greater Danbury community and raise funds.

Parish Café - Holy Trinity will be hosting a monthly café. Parishioners are invited to drop by for coffee, a homemade sweet treat from our kitchen and conversation with Fr. Luke and other members of the parish. We'd like to hear from you about what else you'd like to see at the café in the way of activities, games, new things to learn about or any other ideas. We also want to know what day and time would work best for you. Look for a suggestion box in the hall or share your ideas with Lauren Mihaylo, Susan Sulich or Fr. Luke.

Dorothy Day

Dorothy Day Update— Thank you to all the people who showed up to help serve at Dorothy Day this past Friday. It was great to have so many parishioners show interest and learn the process of preparing and serving. The indoor dining went well, and we kept ahead of the crowds all day serving over 140 hot meals and bag lunches. Our next date to serve will be Friday, April 11th from 1:30-4:45 p.m. If you wish to serve on that date, please let Susan Sulich know.

Church School Updates

Church School Updates—Starting this Sunday, Feb. 2nd, we will be having church school every other Sunday. In addition to the wonderful lessons taught by Leon we will be adding two additional teachers helping with the educational activities: Elissa and Stasia. Church school activities are for all children age 10 and under. Church school students will be first to venerate the cross so they can head downstairs right after Liturgy. March 30th and April 6th

Calling All Crafters

Calling All Crafters—We are looking for crafters of handmade, artisan items for our upcoming Easter Bake Sale scheduled for Sat. April 5th from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. If you or someone you know would like to sell their handmade items, please contact Susan Sulich to reserve a spot. Tables are $35.

Adult Education Opportunities

We have several adult education classes going on currently that are also online:

Spirituality Class – Mondays at 7:00 p.m. This week we are starting a new book: Thinking Orthodox by Dr. Eugenia Constantinou

Catechism Class – Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. For those studying to come into the Church and those in the Church who want to deepen their understanding and participation in the Faith. New Book by Fr. Lawrence Barriger entitled: Insights into the Orthodox Faith.

New Testament – Thursdays at 9:00 a.m. currently we are reading and studying St. Paul's Epistle to the Hebrews

Old Testament Class – Fridays at 9:00 a.m. We are in Proverbs.

All classes will take place in the church hall. We will also make them available via Zoom for those who cannot attend in person. (live, same credentials).

Church Store—We have many new items in our Church Store. Check out our selection of books for summer reading, beautiful icons, jewelry, and religious items. We have many children's offerings and items perfect for gift giving. Your purchase also benefits the parish. If there are any items you would like to see in our store, please let Lisa Farrah or Sarah Mannello know.

Soup to Share—Soup season is here! If you are making soup and you have some extra to spare, consider putting it in a freezer container for "Soup to Share." We will keep these in the freezer in the church hall so that if someone is planning to visit a parishioner and would like to bring a warming meal, they will be available. We also have containers at the church you can use. Please label container with name of soup and main ingredients. Thank you!

Time For Pussy Willows— In just 2 weeks it will be Palm Sunday and we are in need of pussy willows. They are just starting to come out. If you are able to get any, please bring to the church. Do not put in water. Thank you!

Coffee Hour

Coffee Hour—Our coffee hour is a great opportunity to spend time together and share a meal. It's potluck so If there's an item or dish, you'd like to bring please feel free to do so. No one needs to do the whole coffee hour! All offerings are welcome.

| Clothing Drive Ending!

Our Clothing Drive will end Saturday, March 29th. So go through your closets, dressers and drawers. Thank you to Ann Huott and the entire Huott family for their work overseeing this huge effort!

|Sign up for Tomb Vigil

The sign-up sheet to guard the tomb is out by the candle stand. Please fill in your name for the hour you choose to guard the tomb.

Educational Scholarships Available

Applications are available for our scholarship fund. This fund was established by generous donors to perpetuate the values and beliefs of the Orthodox Christian Faith by financially supporting the education of active parishioners. Scholarships are available to active members of our parish for any type of post-secondary education or training. The scholarship is to be awarded to members of Holy Trinity Orthodox Church based on several criteria:

- Available to any student/parishioner furthering his or her education
- Must be a full and active member of Holy Trinity Orthodox Church
- Involved in philanthropic activities

• Recipient must accept the scholarship in person.

Scholarship will be paid directly to the financial institution. Contact Fr. Luke for an application. Deadline for submitting applications is May 15th.

Deanery Presanctified Liturgy –

A Deanery Presanctified Liturgy will be held on Friday, April 4 at 6:30 PM at St. John the Baptist Orthodox Church located at 1240 Broadbridge Avenue, Stratford, CT. There will be a light Lenten Meal to follow. Confessions will be heard beforehand.

Reserve Your Pascha Bread—If you would like a Pascha bread for Easter, please put your name on the list with either Pani Bethany or Susan Sulich. We will be making a batch after our bake sale but can only make a limited quantity so please let us know asap if you would like one.

Lazarus Saturday—On Saturday April 12th we will have liturgy for Lazarus Saturday. Following the liturgy there will be breakfast and a host of activities for all ages. We will be making palm crosses, decorating the church for Palm Sunday and making luminaries to set on the path for Pascha midnight service and other activities for the children. We will also be looking for people to help clean up the grounds and the walkway around the church in preparation for Holy Week and Pascha. Please plan to join us!

As we begin Lent together, the following minimal fasting regulations are designated for our clergy and faithful:

- 1) Monday, March 3 (Clean Monday), the first day of the Fast, is a day of strict abstinence; likewise Great and Holy Friday, and Great and Holy Saturday, namely April 17 and 18 are days of strict abstinence. On these days, no meat or dairy products may be eaten.
- 2) All Wednesdays and Fridays during this entire Season are days of abstinence from meat.
- 3) Meat and meat products may not be eaten during all Holy Week, namely April 14 through April 19
- 4) For the evening Pre-sanctified Liturgy, a minimum three-hours fast from all food and drink must be observed before the reception of Holy Communion. Normal fasting from midnight is still practiced before the Liturgies of St. John Chrysostom and St. Basil the Great.

These are the minimal requirements to observe during this Season. But for those of stronger body and more willing spirit, I wholeheartedly recommend the penitential practices of a sterner quality which the time-honored traditions and customs of our Holy Orthodox Church have handed down to us.

Let the mouth fast from foul words and unjust criticism. For what good is it if we abstain from birds and fishes, but bite and devour our brothers?

St. John Chrysostom

On weekdays (Monday to Friday inclusive) during the seven weeks of Lent, there are restrictions both on the number of meals taken daily and on the types of food permitted; but when a meal is allowed, there is no fixed limitation on the quantity of food to be eaten.

[This material is taken from the introduction to The Lenten Triodion. In modern practice, the above rules tend to be somewhat relaxed, and they have always been relaxed for children and the infirm. Fast as you are able and consult Fr. Luke as needed. As you eat less physical food, it is important to increase your intake of spiritual food – prayer and reading scripture and the fathers of the Church.]
